RE: DWC ADR Program (Lab. Code, § 3201.7): Recognition of Agreement Establishing an Alternative Dispute Resolution Program N162: UNITE HERE Local 2850 / Flagship Facility Services, Inc.

Dear Ms. Davis and Mr. Clevenger,

I am pleased to advise you that, based on a review of the documents and information submitted, the labor-management agreement between the parties identified above meets Labor Code section 3201.7's requirements for an alternative dispute resolution (ADR) program for workers' compensation. Please note, however, that this letter is not a determination that the collective bargaining agreement itself, or any part of it, is in compliance with section 3201.7.

This letter of eligibility will become invalid upon the expiration of the collective bargaining agreement. To meet the regular reporting requirements for ADR programs, please submit annually

- ➤ the data listed under California Code of Regulations, title 8, section 10203, subdivision (b); and
- ➤ either copies of updated versions of the documents and information required at section 10202 of title 8 of the California Code of Regulations, or if there has been no change to the information in those materials since they were last submitted, a letter to that effect.

(Cal. Code Regs, tit. 8, §§ 10202 - 10204.)

I hope that this alternative workers' compensation program will prove effective, and provide high quality medical care and full compensation to injured workers with minimal dispute. If so, the expected substantial savings can be redirected to more productive uses.

Sincerely,

George Parisotto

Administrative Director

Division of Workers' Compensation
