Re: Labor Code section 3201.5 Renewal of Letter of Eligibility:
Bay Area Union Roofing Contractors Workers' Compensation Trust Fund

Dear Mr. de Santiago:

I am pleased to inform you that based on a review of the documents and materials submitted on April 4, 2023, May 8, 2023 and May 9, 2023, I have found that the parties to this agreement continue to meet the eligibility requirements of Labor Code section 3201.5 (Section 3201.5). The terms and conditions for continued eligibility, and the recordkeeping and reporting requirements outlined in prior letters of eligibility remain in full force and effect. Please note this letter is not a determination that the collective bargaining agreement, in its entirety or in part, is in compliance with Section 3201.5.

This letter permits you to continue to maintain an alternative dispute resolution program for disputes about claims for workers' compensation benefits. It also permits you to maintain an exclusive list of providers of medical treatment, medical evaluation, and/or vocational rehabilitation. As provided by California Code of Regulations, title 8, section 10204, subdivision (a), please submit a letter annually outlining any changes to your program.

This letter covers the period July 31, 2023, the expiration date of your previous letter of eligibility, to July 31, 2026. It may become ineffective as to an individual employer on an earlier date, however, if that individual employer no longer carries the required insurance; is no longer a signatory to a current Section 3201.5 provision; or otherwise fails to meet the eligibility requirements of Section 3201.5. Please note that during this eligibility period, you must submit annual reports and reporting data, each as required by regulation. (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 8, § 10204, subd. (a) & § 10203.)

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'G Parisotto', with a long horizontal line extending to the right.
